

Dr. David Pollard worked as a GP in Kingsclere from 1977 to 2004, dedicating his life to caring for patients and supporting the community as both a doctor and a friend.

This tapestry was commissioned by his family to honour and celebrate his many accomplishments and the enduring impact of his life. It captures the beautiful landscape that envelops the village where he lived and practiced.

